SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. Home Electronic Monitoring - The defendant shall be monitored by Voice Recognition monitoring technology and shall abide by all technology requirements for a period of six (6) months. The defendant shall pay for the cost of participation in the location monitoring program. This form of location monitoring technology is ordered to monitor the following restrictions on the defendant's movement in the community as well as other court-imposed conditions of release: The defendant is restricted to his residence at all times except for employment; education; religious services; medical, or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities as pre-approved by the Probation Office.
2. Community Service - The defendant shall contribute 300 hours of community service, at a rate of no less than 20 hours per month, unless excused from the monthly requirements by the Probation Office.
3. DNA Sample Requirement - Pursuant to 42 USC Section 14135a, for all felony offenses, the defendant shall submit to the collection and use of DNA identification information while incarcerated in the Bureau of Prisons, or at the direction of the US Probation Office.
4. Fine Obligation - The defendant shall pay the balance of any fine owed at a rate of no less than $1,000.00 each month and provide verification of same to the Probation Office.

The Probation Office shall release the presentence investigation report to all appropriate agencies in order to execute the sentence of the Court. Treatment agencies shall return the presentence report to the Probation Office upon the defendant's completion or termination from treatment.

THE COURT FINDS that the provision for submission of periodic drug test, as required under 18 U.S.C. Section 3563 (a) and 3583(b), is suspended, as the defendant is believed to pose a low risk of future substance abuse.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant is barred from soliciting, accepting or conducting any business with the U.S. government for a period of three (3) years.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this case remains sealed with the exception of the Judgment and Commitment Order until further order of the Court.
